AN EXTENSIVE LOCK.—Wm. Kinnan, the popular jeweler and bank robber, has put up a large safe in his shop, which is twice as high as three feet, and it is covered with gold plate.

Mr. H. McIlroy.—Recd. several agents of the New York Stock Exchange, and Col. E. S. Carter, receiver for salt, etc., to see the salt, and the salt houses a short distance from the Post Office, on Main Street, opposite the Post Office, and within two squares of the Presbyterian Church, and within four squares of the green hotel, and the salt houses a short distance from the Post Office, to Memphis. Agents A. G. and C. H. McIlroy.

CITY TAX COLLECTOR.—Charles May, is succeeded as a collector of taxes by W. H. Smith, who is entering business, and, if so situated, will discharge the duties of the office in the most judicious manner.

TEN YEARS' LEASE.—The public attention is invited to an advertisement of J. M. Shaw & Co., under the heading "Ten Years' Lease," in the paper this morning. An important announcement is made in this paper, relating to the agency of Main and Moore streets.

STEVEN ARTILLERY.—The members of the Western Artillery have voted to contribute a sum of money to the fund to re-estimate their annual subscription on the 26th of March for a grand entertainment in their honor.

TO THE NIGHT.—The first of all regular meetings last night was at the Shepherd & Moore's, and the same was well attended.

WE HAVE THE PLEASURE.—We had the pleasure of meeting Mr. D. C. Clegg, of New Orleans, at the door of his residence, on West Main Street, between a house and a saloon, and, as we were passing, he said, "Good evening, Mr. Wm. W. Moore." We were greatly pleased to meet him, and, as we said, he is a man of great worth.
